

A PROPHETIC DREAM WITH THE LORD'S GRACE TO PASTORS IN OSLO

Jan-Aage Torp. June 01, 1999

I'll never forget it!

It was Monday, February 8th, 1999 at 12 noon, and the venue was Salemkirken in Oslo, a church which I served as associate pastor in the 1980's. Now the pastor's name was Aril Svartdahl.

An extraordinary gathering of pastors in Oslo was scheduled, convened by Aril Svartdahl.

The speaker was the American-British prophet, Sharon Stone.

I was invited to translate for Sharon Stone. I had talked briefly with her for the first time two days previously when I translated for her in an open meeting in Salemkirken.

I arrived at Salemkirken five minutes before the meeting started. I didn't look forward to being there, in that I there would meet the members of the Pastors Group in Oslo for the first time after they had excluded me from their group eight-nine weeks earlier. Now I had been invited to translate by Aril Svartdahl, perhaps in a wee effort to build a bridge to me.

Then I entered into the luncheon room of Salemkirken where the meeting would be held. Aril Svartdahl and Sharon Stone sat and talked together at a table. I walked cautiously over to them.

They were talking confidentially...

Suddenly Aril exclaimed loudly: "You must ask Jan-Aage. He's the expert!"

Sharon glanced smilingly at me.

I asked: “What is this about?”

Sharon explained as Aril left us: “I had a serious dream last night. I dreamed that there was an attack on pastors in Oslo regarding spiritual wives, and that if the pastors don’t repent, the Lord will permit the news to be published on the newspaper front pages. I saw literally that it was splashed out on the newspaper front pages!”

I chuckled nervously: “Hehe...”

Sharon continued seriously: “This does sound serious. Do you know what it’s all about?”

I answered: “I know too much!”

Sharon: “Don’t you think I should share it here?”

I answered again: “Yes, by all means!”

A few minutes later Aril Svartdahl had introduced the prophet Sharon Stone, and I stood by her side and translated.

Sharon told about the night’s dream.

I translated.

No response. The pastors sat motionless and expressionless...
